

Question:

Explain the process of photosynthesis.

Student Answer:

Photosynthesis is the process by which plants make their own food using sunlight. It takes place in the chloroplasts of plant cells. The plant uses carbon dioxide from the air and water from the soil to produce glucose. Oxygen is released as a byproduct. Sunlight provides the energy needed for this process.